THE CHALLENGE

Sound familiar?

● "Our backlog keeps growing." now

● "We can't fill this open position fast enough." 9m

● "We need short-term support around the holidays and month-end." 1h

● "Someone's on leave and we're falling behind." 2m

● "Our volume just spiked." 14m

● "We can't commit to a long-term contract." 3h

THE SOLUTION

Qualified coders, on your terms

e4health On-Demand Coding Services provides qualified remote production coders on an as-needed basis. Bring in the specialty you need, for the hours you need, for as long as you need it, without a long-term contract.

WHY TEAMS CHOOSE IT

 No long-term commitment
Engage for weeks, not months.
Extend only when it makes sense.

 Specialty-matched coders
Experienced production coders fit to your specialty and schedule.

 Scale as needs change
Cover a backlog, a leave, or a spike, or grow into a longer partnership.

HOW IT WORKS

Request it. Get it. Keep going.

CLIENT CONFIDENCE

Coverage that earns confidence.

When coding demand changes, you need capacity you can bring in with confidence. Clients point to e4health's responsiveness as a reason they keep working with us.

“ e4health is always available and provides additional support whenever requested, even at times with little notice due to volume increases. ”
